★ WHAT TO WATCH FOR IN WEEK 3 ★

DAK PRESCOTT

- * With 69 passing yards, Dak Prescott will reach 30,000 career passing yards and become the ninth quarterback in NFL history to reach 30,000 passing yards in his first 117 career games, joining Matthew Stafford, Dan Marino, Kurt Warner, Kirk Cousins, Peyton Manning, Jared Goff, Matt Ryan and Aaron Rodgers.
- * Prescott needs one rush to pass Roger Staubach (410) for the most rushing attempts by a quarterback in franchise history.
- * Prescott's only career matchup against Baltimore was in 2016, a 27-17 Dallas win, where Prescott completed 75.0% of his passes for 301 yards and three touchdowns. With three touchdowns against the Ravens, Prescott will record his 37th career game with three-plus touchdown passes, second in franchise history behind Tony Romo (40).

TREVON DIGGS

- * Trevon Diggs' next interception will be the 20th of his career. He would become the second-fastest player (50 games) in franchise history to reach 20 interceptions, trailing only Everson Walls (28 games).
- * Sunday will mark Diggs' 50th career game.

EZEKIEL ELLIOTT

- * Ezekiel Elliott needs 40 yards on the ground to reach 9,000 rushing yards in his career, including his eight-plus seasons with the Cowboys and his one season with New England.

BRANDON AUBREY

- * Brandon Aubrey has made eight field goals in 2024, tied with Richie Cunningham (1997) for the most made field goals through two games in team history. He would need five field goals on Sunday to tie Cunningham, John Carney and John Kasay for the most made field goals through the first three games of a season in NFL history.

87

JAKE FERGUSON

- * Jake Ferguson has 950 career receiving yards in 34 career games. With 50 receiving yards, Ferguson will become the second-fastest tight end in Cowboys history to reach the 1,000-yard mark, trailing Jason Witten (26 games).

88

CEEDEE LAMB

- * CeeDee Lamb has recorded at least 10 receptions in 10 career games. With 10 receptions on Sunday, Lamb would tie Jason Witten (11 games) for the most 10-catch games in Cowboys history.
- * Lamb has recorded nine straight games with four-plus receptions and 50-plus receiving yards dating back to last season, the longest active stretch among wide receivers. Michael Irvin is the only Cowboy to produce a streak of more than nine games (11 games, 1991-92).
- * Lamb needs one touchdown reception to tie Miles Austin (34) for 10th on the Cowboys all-time receiving touchdowns list.

DALLAS COWBOYS

- * Despite seeing their 16-game home winning streak snapped in Week Two, the Cowboys are one-of-two teams without a home loss to an AFC opponent since the start of the 2022 season (Dallas and Philadelphia are both 5-0 at home against AFC teams).
- * Since 2021, the Cowboys are 12-2 the week following a loss, an .857 winning percentage in weeks following a loss that is tied with Buffalo for best in the NFL over the last three-plus seasons.

★ HEAD COACHES ★

MIKE McCARTHY (168-103-2, 18th Year, 43-26 with Dallas)

The Dallas Cowboys named Mike McCarthy the ninth head coach in franchise history on Jan. 8, 2020, and he has led the franchise to three consecutive playoff appearances for the first time since 1991-96. He also won 12 games in each of the last three seasons, the first time Dallas posted three consecutive 12-win seasons since 1993-95. The Cowboys 37 regular season wins since 2021 are the second-most in the NFL during the last three years, trailing only Kansas City (39).

McCarthy is in his 18th year as a head coach - 13 with Green Bay and four with Dallas - along with 13 years as an assistant coach in the NFL, including six as an offensive coordinator.

As a head coach, McCarthy has racked up a 168-103-2 regular season coaching record, and he owns the third-most wins (18th all-time) among active NFL coaches. His teams have qualified for the postseason 12 times, won six NFC North Division titles, two NFC East titles, made four NFC Championship Game appearances and took home a Super Bowl XLV championship held at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, following the 2010 NFL season.

In 2023 McCarthy led the charges of a team that finished 12-5 for the third straight season. En route to the team's third straight playoff berth, the Dallas offense led the league in points-per-game (29.9) while the Cowboys finished with a +10 turnover differential for the third consecutive season. During his time in Green Bay, McCarthy was known as a prolific offensive mind and the primary play-caller for the Packers. McCarthy's offense finished fourth in the NFL in total offense and third in points-per-game through his 14-year stint with the club.

McCarthy is only the fourth head coach in NFL history to lead a single franchise to eight-or-more consecutive playoff appearances, joining Tom Landry, Chuck Noll and Bill Belichick. Those eight appearances from 2009-16 were more than the rest of the NFC North Division combined over that span (Minnesota, three; Detroit, three; Chicago, one).

McCarthy's nine playoff appearances overall are the most by a Packers coach since the NFL postseason began in 1933, and he guided the Packers to a franchise-record fourth consecutive division title in 2014. With the victory over Dallas in the 2016 playoffs, McCarthy surpassed Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren for the most playoff victories in team history (10).

JOHN HARBAUGH (160-101, 17th Year)

John Harbaugh, who is in his 17th year with Baltimore, was named the third Ravens head coach on January 17, 2008. His 17-year tenure marks the second-longest head coach tenure in the NFL, behind only Mike Tomlin - 18 years in Pittsburgh.

The 2019 NFL Coach of the Year has led the Ravens to the playoffs in 11 of his 16 previous seasons (2008-12, 2014, 2018-20, and 2022-23). Harbaugh captured the second championship in franchise history, edging the San Francisco 49ers 34-31 in Super Bowl XLVII.

Since Harbaugh's 2008 arrival, the Ravens have posted the NFL's third-most victories (172, including playoffs). Baltimore's 12 playoff wins since 2008 tie Green Bay for the NFL's fourth-most during that span, trailing only Kansas City (16), New England (16) and San Francisco (13).

Over the course of his 17-year tenure, Harbaugh's defenses have allowed the league's fewest overall touchdowns (527) and the fewest points-per-game (19.0).

In 2019, Harbaugh's offense also set a precedent, becoming the first team ever to average 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards-per-game in a season. The 2019 Ravens finished first in points (33.2) and rushing yards-per-game (206.0 - franchise record) while finishing second in total yards (407.6).

Prior to his time in Baltimore, Harbaugh began his NFL career in Philadelphia, serving as the Eagles special teams coordinator (1998-2006) and secondary coach (2007). The Eagles special teams elevated from 29th to first in league under his leadership.

Harbaugh found his coaching start in college football, first as a graduate assistant for his father, Jack Harbaugh, at Western Michigan. Then, he spent a year at Pittsburgh as the tight ends coach before an eight-year stint at Cincinnati (1989-96), where he coached special teams, tight ends, outside linebackers and running backs.

Harbaugh also served as recruiting coordinator for the Bearcats, recruiting 27 starters and coaching both the NCAA's top-two returners, Robert Tate (34.3 kickoff return average in 1995) and Chris Hewitt (31.5 kickoff return average in 1993).

Harbaugh, a Toledo, Ohio native, won the Football Scholar Athlete award at Miami (OH) as a defensive back for the RedHawks.

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys added a talented piece to their secondary when they traded for former second round pick, Andrew Booth, midway through training camp. Booth, originally drafted 42nd overall by Minnesota in the 2022 NFL Draft, was an ascending player for the Vikings as a rookie in 2022, but a season-ending knee injury sidelined him for most of the year. Booth returned to action in 2023 and played in all 17 games for the Vikings, mainly on special teams. With a clean slate in Dallas, Booth looks to contend for a roster spot in a talented Cowboys secondary.

at Cleveland (9/8) Saw action on offense but predominately served as the teams KR/PR on special teams. Returned one kickoff for 34 yards and returned five punts for 96 yards and a touchdown. His 60-yard punt return for a touchdown was the first touchdown return of his career and the longest punt return of his career. It was Dallas' first punt return for a touchdown since 2017, when Ryan Switzer had an 83-yard touchdown return against Washington (11/30). The last time Dallas had a punt return for a touchdown in the season opener was in 1992 when Kelvin Martin returned a punt for a touchdown against Washington (9/7). Turpin became the fourth player in Cowboys history to record a punt return touchdown, a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown with the team. Only Bob Hayes, Kevin Williams and Wane McGarity have accomplished all three.

vs. New Orleans (9/15) Played in his 35th career game where he primarily served as the teams returner, tallying one kickoff return for 35 yards. Also caught two passes for four yards and registered one carry for two yards.
